Vendor Agreement – SOMA Camp This document summarizes the agreement between SOMA and vendors who sell their wares at SOMA Camp. There are three different commercial relationships between a vendor and SOMA. Please complete the section that applies to you – Please print using upper case except for signatures. Note that all sales at SOMA facilities are between you and your customer, and you must make clear to your customer that there is no SOMA endorsement of your wares. All vendors agree to indemnify SOMA against any problem with products sold. All vendors are responsible for supervising their tables and selling their products, must keep written receipt books with daily tallies, and make payment at the end of each day to the person in charge of the SOMA bookstore. All vendors are responsible for collecting and paying sales tax.
